

LITTLE BOSSES POSE IN ALBANY

Swelled Heads Are Numerous in the Capital Now that the Governor, Odell and Nixon Are Keeping Quiet.

PURE MILK BILL WOULD PREVENT ADULTERATION.

Proposed Measure Would Stop Practice of Skimming—Assemblyman Palmer Fighting for Niagara Preservation.

(Special to The Evening World.)
ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 15.—"Big Bill" Dewey's characterization of Governor McChesney as a "cheeky" person would apply to several ambitious gentlemen pretty well up in the list of second-rate leaders of the G. O. P. here at Albany just at present. With Odell out of the way and Gov. Higgins finding his own business in the Executive chamber, there is ample opportunity afforded for strutting, and no end of volunteers for the honor of walking through the paces, with ridiculous dignity plus exaggerated vanity.

If Odell were on hand the paraders who are arrogating to themselves the right of leadership would shrivel up like an underdog in a wash-tub. But for the time being there is no one in sight to put these statesmen down to the popular view of themselves. They assume to give orders, and it is a hopeful sign that they are disputing among themselves the right to pose as the boss of the game. This mix-up will lead to trouble after a while, and then perhaps the public will get a chance to view the inside workings of the machine.

Troubles Ahead.

When Odell gets out of the way, which is looked for at the end of the week, the second-rate bosses will spend their respective efforts to the breaking point, and then there'll be something doing in the way of a shake-up. It is physically impossible for any one man to hold the reins of a machine as big as Albany's. The only way to hold so many men with many abnormal growths of heads. About the only two men who appear to be keeping the same sized heads and incidentally running things to suit themselves are the Governor, who is not taking any part in shaping legislation, and Nixon, the speaker of the Assembly, from whom all organization orders emanate.

Neither of these men is doing any stirring; nor are they apparently more than their own shadows. They spend most of their time in saving wood and keeping out of the danger zone, while the smaller fry make believe they are endowed with more authority than any cabinet officer ever possessed.

Booms That Pass in the Night.
A new gubernatorial boom springs up every day or two, flourishes for a few minutes and then collapses. Two men who are famous for their connection with the lobby and close alliance with corporations have kindly obliged by permitting their ill-advised friends to test out the boom. If either one were nominated, the lobby would rejoice, but the respectable voters would undoubtedly vote for the fellow nominated against him as the lesser of two evils.

George Palmer, the leader of the Democratic forces in the Assembly, has taken up the fight to save Niagara Falls from confiscation and despoliation by the power corporations. He has introduced a resolution calling on the President to urge the Canadian Government to co-operate with the United States to put a stop to the encroachment on the falls by the power companies.

"This is not a political question," he said to the writer last night, "and I do not see how the Republicans can object to it unless, of course, they want to favor the corporations. Their own President has taken a decided and unauthorized vote for the fellow nominated against him as the lesser of two evils."

The men who sell milk to the trust for supplying New York City and who compose the membership of the Five States Milk Association have sent a bill to Albany which if passed, will reduce the legitimate profits of the trust and compel it to furnish pure, unadulterated milk. The milk producers have complained to the State Department of Agriculture that the trust skims the cream off a large part of the milk brought to the milk stations and adulterates pure milk with the skimmed cream. The State Department has no way under the law to stop the trust from doing this. Ninety per cent. of the milk sent to the stations is 5 per cent. fat, and as the law requires that it shall contain only 1 per cent. of fat, the trust is profitable to reduce the percentage by means of adulteration to a 3 per cent. basis.

The producers argue that the milk should be sold to the consumer as it is brought to the stations, with a fair share of cream on it.

They do not care particularly for the consumer, but they object to the use of skimmed milk, because, if it is thrown away as the law provides, there would be a demand for a greater supply of pure milk.

Bill Would Prevent Adulteration.
The bill proposed by the milk producers, if made a law, would absolutely prevent adulteration of milk by the trust, as the Commissioner of Agriculture would have all the powers that a legislative committee has to subpoena witnesses, compel the giving of testimony and investigate thoroughly every case of alleged adulteration.

The employee of a milk station is re-

YOUNGEST MEMBER OF THE UPPER TEN DOGDOM SOCIETY.

Aldebaran, an English bull puppy, makes her debut in upper ten dogdom at the Dog Show being held in Madison Square Garden. She is the youngest dog, officially, that ever entered society in this particular manner. She was just one day more than six months old on the opening day of the show, six months being the minimum limit. Despite that fact, her beautiful points are so sharply and so well defined that her owner, quired under the bill to apply for a license from the State Commissioner and to file with him a statement under oath that he will not adulterate or permit the adulteration of any milk. If he violates this oath he will forfeit his license, incur the penalties provided by the general law and be prohibited from working in a milk station for five years.

Levi F. Morton, ex-Governor and ex-Vice-President, has become the protector of the land turtles. The Zoological Society of the State, of which Mr. Morton is President, is devoting its prestige and power to putting through the Legislature a bill making it a serious offense to kill a land turtle. The bill, which was offered by Assemblyman Reeve, of Suffolk, passed the lower house yesterday. Mr. Reeve, in explaining the measure, made a plea for the turtle. He said:

"This bill is necessary, because the land turtle is a useful animal for florists, who use them in their conservatories for destroying bugs. The time has come when we should throw our protecting arms around this valuable animal. The slaughtering of these creatures is done mostly on Sundays, when no animal is safe."

Never was good jewelry sold so cheap as in our great sale now going on.
